Notes on the Calendar

The classification of the Calendar into five groups does not indicate the importance but priority. When two holy days fall on the same day, the feast with the lower number takes precedence. Holy days in groups I and II should always be celebrated and those in group II which are moved may be celebrated on any convenient day before the next Sunday. Festivals and commemorations in groups III - V are optional.

Groups I, II and III: The Eucharist and Daily Offices are of the day, normally with lectionary provision. Daily Eucharistic provision is omitted and Daily Office material may be combined on the preceding and/or following weekday. The collect used is that of the day.

Groups IV and V: The Daily Offices are of the ordinary day or season, and, when the collect is used, it should normally be that of the week. At weekday celebrations of Holy Days in Groups IV and V the Daily Eucharist readings may be used. A Patronal festival, Feast of Title, Dedication Festival or Provincial, Diocesan, Ecumenical celebration or Thanksgiving Day (traditionally around the first Sunday of October) may take precedence of any Sunday or other observance in groups III - V.

Octaves are observed at the feasts of Christmas and Easter only. Easter-tide begins on Easter Eve and ends on the Day of Pentecost

Colours:

The Church in Wales has no officially authorised scheme of liturgical colours. That shown within the Lectionary reflects the most widespread current practice. The Liturgical Colours are traditional except that white is commended throughout the Epiphany season, violet before Lent from 3 February, and red throughout the Kingdom season. On Maundy Thursday and at lesser weekday commemorations, the suggested colour applies only to the Eucharist.

The Collect:

It should be normal to use one collect of the day, as appropriate to the lections in use. The Post Communion prayer is optional and matches the collect.

In the Collects headed Contemporary, the following may be substituted for the Sunday collect given:

Sundays of Advent 2 – 4 (in which case it should not be used as a Post Communion prayer)	Advent I
Sundays of Christmas	Christmas 2
Sundays of Epiphany 3(4) and 4	Epiphany 2(3)
Sundays before Lent	5 before Lent
Sundays of Lent 2 and 3	Lent I
Sundays of Easter 2 - 6	Easter Day
Sundays after Pentecost	Pentecost 7, 10, 14, 15, 18
Sundays of the Kingdom 2 and 3	Kingdom I

Morning and Evening Prayer during Holy Week

The readings for Mattins and Evensong are taken from the second and third provision as appropriate.

The Year

Within the Lectionary, all celebrations are shown on their correct day including those falling on a Sunday. The celebrations falling on a Sunday may be kept, according to local custom on any convenient day during that week. The provision is given for all celebrations at the back section of the book page 129. These are marked with a † below.

Note: On those occasions when a major holy day (from groups 1 or 2) replaces a Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings (proprs) appointed for the Eucharist are the Principal Service readings, those appointed for Evening Prayer are the Second Service readings and those appointed for Morning Prayer are the Third Service readings.

Early in 2010, The Church in Wales Publications Department will be able to offer an easy to use download facility and an order on line facility.

Both will be available from the publications link that will appear on the home page or by going straight to www.churchinwales.org.uk/publications.

The downloads section will be continually updated with useful resource material that can be used for personnel use within The Church in Wales.

Look out for the text file of 'an order for The Holy Eucharist (2004)'

The order on line facility will allow you to see the publication covers a long with a short description and with a simple couple of clicks send an email to the publications department to order the publication. Payment will be in the usual manner with an invoice being sent out with your order.

When the facilities are up and running, should you experience any problems, please do not hesitate to contact:
